Prof: Ladies, gentlemen and characters, May I have your attention. I am Prof, one of Snow White's helpers, and it is my pleasure to be the Master of Ceremonies for the first annual Granny Awards. This is a live performance which we are taping for the FTC, the Fairy Tale Channel. Before we go on the air in just a few minutes, we need to go over a few things

Granny: Has it been that long, already? Why, it seems like only yesterday that I began playing the part of the grandmother in Little Red Riding Hood

Belle: Just a dab of my Beauty Cream turns any beast into a beauty! (to Beast) Come on, just a little dab. (Beast growls) Come on. (Sings last phrase of song) "Beauty and the Beast" (Beast transforms into Handsome Prince) Now available in the new Magical Rose Scent!

Stepsister 1: Drat! If it weren't for those stupid corns on my toe, that slipper would fit. I would have had them removed if you had told me you were coming.

Wolf: Where are you going little girl? Don't you know there are scary things out here in the woods? I would be careful if I were you!
